

IPL After Work Gathering on May 21, 2014

Raised $14,885 online from 127 contributors

And another 23 people donated $3,645 by check

Hosted at the historic Beaton House of Jane Erdenberger & IPL Board member Mark Hoeger

Great food and drink to nourish our bodies & spirits

Beautiful weather allowed us to enjoy the outdoors

Mark Hoeger shared about the work of IPL

Ken Reed-Bouley laid out a challenge to donors

And many people responded with generosity

IPL is an affiliate of Omaha Together One Community (OTOC). The work of both organizations is made possible because of the dedicated efforts of hundreds of volunteers and contributors.

Thanks for Investing in Leadership!!

Christine Arach Ross shared her experience in IPL's leadership development work with refugees

Sarita Penka told about IPL's work with OTOC's new Mental Health Action Team and Elaine Wells described the efforts of OTOC's new Environmental Sustainability Action Team

OMAHA GIVES!
a 24-hour charitable challenge

